ExpiroSavor : Save & Donate - ExpiroSavor is a web application that is used to prevent the wastage of food, medicines, and other items and help poor people to live their livelihoods. ExpiroSavor also takes help from Various NGOs to connect poor people because they don't have smartphones to use this application. Utilize left over food from parties and marriage home.

Food & Donate:
1. Lot of people didn't get proper food even some of are not able to afford a single time food for their livelihood
2. According to the Global Hunger Index 2021, India ranks 101 out of 116 countries in terms of hunger and malnutrition. The report estimates that 14% of India's population is undernourished.
3. Medicine is very hard to recycle and also causes a lot of pollution.

Features :
1. Add Item to their inventory.
2. Donate Item or Sell in minimal price.
3. Profile and Items Inventory management.
4. Nearest Ngo info (by geopy lib)
5. Show nearest expiring item at top of home page.
6. Shop : Where user get food, medicines or other items that donar donates.
7. In shop, Items are auto arrange according to their locations, nearest will show first.
8. Application accessible to individuals with disabilities. This could include features like alternative text for images, keyboard navigation, and support for assistive technologies like screen readers
9. Partnerships with Local Businesses:Local restaurants, grocery stores, and pharmacies to collect excess food and medicine that would otherwise go to waste.
10. Notification System: Implement a notification system that alerts donors and recipients about food or medicine donations, and user to expiry alery before actual expire the items.